

INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT SYSTEM POLICY

Document No : INX-DD.01

Release date : 06.12.2021

Revision No : 02

Rev. Date : 30.01.2024

Our vision:

To be a reliable and leading organization in domestic and international markets for machining and mechanical assembly in the construction, aviation, and space industries.

Our Mission:

To be an innovative and continuously evolving company in harmony with advancing technology. With the knowledge and experience we possess, we aim to always provide our customers with affordable, high-quality, and reliable products and services.

Our Integrated Management System Policy:

We commit to complying with existing laws and customer requirements in the construction, aviation, and space industries, not polluting the environment, using natural resources optimally, identifying and eliminating risks at their source or minimizing them, strictly enforcing occupational safety, developing our employees through training, implementing current quality standards through teamwork, continuously improving our management system, planning and conducting research and development activities according to our strategic plans and developments, ensuring timely and accurate production and service, ensuring customer satisfaction and loyalty, and enhancing our competitiveness and development capabilities in machining and mechanical assembly.

Our Core Values:

- Honesty and reliability
- Impartiality
- Respect for society and the environment
- Priority on worker health and safety
- Valuing and developing our employees
- Trust in our employees
- Emphasis on education
- Achieving together with team spirit
- Integrity in quality
- Innovation
- Continuous improvement

Mustafa KAYA

General Manager